Mr. William Mitchell

Headmaster's message

I believe many – students, parents and alumni – would agree that teaching skills and teacher commitment are two of the most important factors that make for a strong school. Through analysis of survey data, we can learn much about the strengths of our programme and about where improvements can be made.

Therefore, it is enormously encouraging that, on our recent very comprehensive Alumni Satisfaction Survey, the results in these two measures have been consistently high over the years. Furthermore, it is worth noting that these measures have continued to rise steadily over the past two decades. Among other independent schools surveyed by our consultant in both Canada and the United States, teaching skills and teacher commitment of Selwyn House faculty ranked at or near the top.

We will continue to use such data as part of our strategic planning process to ensure the excellence of a Selwyn House experience for each of our students.

However, at this time, based on our results on teaching skills and teacher commitment, it is my pleasure to dedicate the 2001 Yearbook to the current and former faculty of the School.

*" ... in both Canada and the United States, teaching skills and teacher commitment of Selwyn House
faculty ranked at or

The 2001 Yearbook Staff:

Adam Rozenewajg, Jon-Ian Lui, Rayan Kaedbey, Phil Desmarais, Tommy Hatzithomas, Antoine Leuzey, Kyam Shell-Schnitzer, Tim Rossy, Nick Tory, Andy Rosenhek, Tom Spencer, Jon Bloomfield, Jon Scalia, Robbie Campbell, Adriano Cesta, Eli Mantis, Mr. Bedard, Mrs. Von Eschen, Mrs. Ritchie

From the Editor

Welcome to my labour of love. After many hardships and many hours spent in the computer lab, I am proud to present to you the 2001 Selwyn House Yearbook.

We went out of our way to provide a new look and a new feel to this year's book. We have definitely stepped into the future to the fullest extent of our technological capabilities. Armed with just under thirty new PC laptops, we entered the year inspired. Having learned from our past mistakes, we recruited a rather large staff and separated into groups according to our talents, which proved to be most successful. As in every year there are those who work harder than others and dedicate themselves more. We worked well as a group and I must thank all those who kept with us to the end. Most notably, Tim Rossy took on a very heavy workload and the results are more than admirable. The future of the SHS yearbook looks very promising as Tim returns next year as the Editor. Mr. Bedard and Mrs. Von Eschen went beyond the call of duty and added their own touches for which I and the entire staff are very thankful. I encourage all of you, especially the grads, to cherish this book of memories. I worked hard on it, we worked hard on it and we hope you all enjoy it!

5 Years and Selwyn and it's all over. It hardly seems like I've spent any time here. Looking back, there are so many things to look back on. The class trips we went on provided such great memories. Especially Stratford in grade 10 and rafting this year. A.M. and I were undefeated at pool in Stratford and the interesting nights T.E., B.C. and I had while rafting are unforgettable. There are the countless trips to Tabagie Greene before ball hockey games with M.S. Our table in grade 10 is also where the juicer and SNE were invented. S.G., our championship will always remain with A.M. (the never won one!). Of course this year also had some great times. TRCGAGHW. I'll never forget our yellow submarine while warming the benches on the senior soccer team. M.S. who could forget the countless days of you riding your horse? All and all, A.M., T.E., S.G., M.S., A.C. thank for 5 years of unforgettable times! I now must leave you with a few words of wisdom. Taboo (M.S.), Shabby, and of course one must not forget Darby!

When you think about it, eleven years is a truly long time. Every now and then I pull out the old yearbooks and laugh at how ridiculous the young and innocent me stood there, smiling and posing for that eye-twitching camera. That young boy, so curious and unprepared gazed at that fiery lens not knowing of the large commitments to come. Midnight cram sessions for four consecutive tests, burrowing through a Shakespearean tragedy at 11:30 on a Sunday night to reach my way to the big 2000, or practicing "Stop in the Name of Love" to ensure a Selwyn Jazz band victory. All these things are unbeknownst to that small child, prepared to stay in so many classes being taught to learn. Friends inside and outside Selwyn have taught me so much about myself and about this crazy world we live in, preparing me to go towards that gate where I belong. Farewell Selwyn House. Despite how much I've cursed your name, you will be missed.

The past few years have hopefully been the hardest I will ever have to live. They forced me into situations and feelings no one should ever have to experience, stirring emotions worse than I could ever express. Throughout all that disappointment and regret, however, there has always been one constant presence: the people that have shared these eleven years with me. Everyday at school, I have had the pleasure and honor to know a tremendous group of students and faculty, people who have accomplished the two essential tasks in educating: developing relationships and knowledge for a lifetime. (I also now know what nuclear disintegration and the theory of relativity are). Enumerating all my influences here would be both futile and unnecessary. Not only do they already know who they are (I hope), but the entire point is that the atmosphere infused into the class of '01 was a group effort. Countless is the number of times I arrived at school depressed and upset, only to find my spirit rejuvenated within but a few classes, not by one person, but by an ambient energy. Never forget this power, no matter how much fun it is to be a surly and cynical teenager, happiness will always be worth it.

My 11 years at Selwyn is quickly winding down. Although I thought this final stretch would be a happy time, I can't help but feel sad. I am going to miss my teachers, coaches and friends that I am leaving behind. I could not have done it without any of you. Thanks mom for all the driving, and support. Dad for always trusting me and helping me up when I was down. Thank you Natasha, Nita, Harry and Leticia for lending a hand, and being there for me. The JTC, I'm gonna win the point contest. Geoff-fabricator, disrespect, condescending, go live in China Cheaps- j table master, late nights you know where. Mitchy- disrespecting kinglemomst, I'll see you at Wanda's place. Starvin- Fireworks, cliff's parties, C..... Linds- were just friends', ice, glasses, closet. Ari- little girls, and Sunday breakfast. And all the rest of you. R.K, M.R, J.S, J.L, L.V, D.M.X, J.D, B.I.G, S.S, and anyone else I forgot. I'll miss all of you and love you. Peace out.

How to begin recounting so many years of heart filled memories: soccer trips a k a "Common boys, to Decarie and back. I'm timing you". Rugby session, one concussion after another. To the coaches who stood by me when I couldn't stand tall. P.G. M.M. A.P. Friendships and character have all been built at this school that I have attended for so many years, M.D., J.M. the original two. Thanks K.S.S. for the help. My supporting gf C.G. that I love, what would I do without you, "oh my god it's 7:15". This last note goes out to my parents and family, F.B. M.B. R.B. F.B., what kind of person would I have become without an image to look up to? Finally it is time for me to go into a world where I have no idea what I will see, but "I will not go gently into this good night". I will "wreak havoc and let slip the dogs of war".

Apparently it has been five years since the Cudester took me under his wing in our Grade seven homeroom class and taught me how to fly the hornet. Ever since then, I knew it would be fair game in terms of what I would be learning on a day-to-day basis at Selwyn House. There were those who thought I would never make it, but if there is anything this place has taught me, it is how to finally become a man. Through it all, my family has stuck by my side to watch the transition. Dad, Mom, and Sean thank you for being on my side through my most difficult times, and rooting for me in my triumphs. To my teachers and coaches who helped me out along the way. T.J.N., thanks for helping me out both in the classroom and on the rink. S.M., thanks for your unconditional support in hockey and baseball, and making our Europe tour a reality. K.B., I've learned more about yourself from you than actual English. R.W., sometimes you were the only person who would listen. To the boys with whom I battled for five years, how r yah? Jer- you're an awesome friend who has stuck with me through it all. Bobito- You taught me the finer things in the Italian lifestyle. Hendy- We've shared some tough times together but I have to ask you this. What are you doing on the ice, Jesus? Lastly, to the grads of 2001. Take these words from Henry B. Adams and apply them to your future. I can tell you that they have come in handy for me: "One friend in a lifetime is much, two are many, three are hardly possible."

Patrick Bruce

The best thing to do is not to be alarmed but to be astonished and alarmed and tearful - it fits the mold. Live and let live but to live is not to let live. What an absolute enigma the meaning of which we have come to accept and use to our advantage. Spun around in a washing machine (always remember that) and coming out clean and fresh, ready for the next cycle. I slept in a Teepee once, and came out enlightened. I slept in hotel room once and it was the shortest sleep I have ever had. Lessons are discovered, stumbled upon unknowingly and most certainly unwillingly and most were probably not intended and most were more beneficial than the one can comprehend. No selling out, no backing out, no being a wolf for me, for us. What a beautiful midnight. Beliefs allow the mind to stop functioning. A non-functioning mind is clinically dead.

Believe in nothing. -Tool (goodbye crazy guys!)
I got me some good grades, now I work me the night shift, where I pull and pull till it hurts. -MGB (story of life) warm bodies, I sense are not machines that can only make money. -LIVE (live by it, our words of the day!)
and so, again and finally, we run for home.

Roberto Brunetti

I would first of all like to thank my father and mother for everything $50 000 later I've become a man. Pa grazie per tutti. Domenico you are the man, one year left. Cristoforo thanks for all the beatings, those helped me become the person I am today. To my brother's blood is thicker than water. To my zia Pat, uncle Kenny, and nona I love you. My 5 years at Selwyn House have been amazing. Thanks to all my friends Stefano (Salvege) we made Selwyn House, James (Jimmy Fats) keep the jokes coming, we're going to Lasalle to pimp the big-ores. The Italian crew lives forever. Bernstein the morning show and geography class helped make Selwyn. Rozenw.ag your parties were always the best. Duch thanks for the good times. Thanks to all my other friends to JW, RK, JHL, MS, and everyone else we made Selwyn. Five years have gone by so fast. I walked into Selwyn a boy and am leaving a man. Sports at Selwyn were always the best part of my day. Football champs 2000. Basketball almost boys. Rugby 7's champs one more banner to follow. To all the teacher's who helped me along the way. TJN, RN, BMB, TD, MD, CR, KKB, RW, RG, DP, PG, and especially MM thanks for everything. We helped make Selwyn the place it is today. "It is better to live one day like a lion, then a thousand days like a sheep." This is how I plan to live my life. Ciao!

I am Jack's fulfilled, blissful soul - Five wonderful years left me in control - But for the light that I now clearly see - Imparted thanks to those who set me free - CN, a brother, always there for me - MK, Inspiration to live your dreams - The 'rents, paramount guides to finding myself - And all the rest, you all know yourselves - I love you all, till permanent dawn - But for now, well, the music plays on - Forever and ever, for note after note - From Lester B, I leave you with leave with one final quote.
"And then I remember to relax, and stop trying to hold on to it, and then it flows through me like rain and I can't feel anything but gratitude for every single moment of my stupid little life. You probably have no idea what I'm talking about, I'm sure - but don't worry. You will someday."

Patrick Chuang

I am proud to say that I'm one of the few guys who have spent 11 enjoyable years here at Selwyn House. This school is like a home away from home. It has taught me many valuable lessons during the years and has shown me what I'm capable of doing. I have soooooo many fond memories. Arundel, Classe Rouge, Quebec in gr 6, Stratford, Ms. Viau's Bart Bucks, CB's and MD's hockey pools, just to name a few. I'd like to leave all my friends with a couple of memories. Humberto, you were almost like a helpful neighbor to me and I'm very sure I'll continue to see you elsewhere. By the way, I wasn't "gros" in gr 6 S.S.S., stop watching hockey and study harder. Jonas, thanks for the nickname "Z", tractor wheel gr 2." Finally, to R.A., J.F., E.M., A.G., A.W., M.S., R.K. and other lifers, thanks for hanging with me since gr 1. However, I wouldn't have gone this far without the support of my family. I can't believe it's time for me to leave Selwyn. But I'll always keep the memories with me. Remember Punch Imlach's quotation grads of 2001: "A ship in harbor is safe, but that's not what ships are built for."

Chris Churchill-Smith

I am summing up my eleven years at Selwyn in under 200 words—cliche—first, my family. I am eternally indebted to you all—thank you. Litvack, thanks for everything, especially for making me realize that I am the only person who will take care of myself. Mr. Maurovich and Mr. Shannon, thanks for making me control my desire for hockey. Mr. Nicoll and Ms. Biggs for making me understand the importance of the written language. Mr. Downey for teaching at the student's level, and finally Mr. Wearing, Mr. Martin, and Mr. Glasspoole for always supporting and helping me through my academic and athletic life. Finalement, Glaude—ton café double espresso s'en vien mon cochin!" To the rat pack—Nacos, Levy D., Sampson, Hendy, M. Roven, and Reid—what can I say? I'm sure we'll keep in touch after all, whose going to listen to my 'dirty' comments. Here's to Wilner, Karim the Dream, Schaf, Bernstein, Sniderwoman (keep swinging, the famine will end soon), and Worth. Thanks for keeping SHS authentic when we needed it most. Finally to Dot—you're the woman I could never get—I love you more than I hate you for it. Here's to the wine tasters, fake id's, 737, Thursday nights, martinis, clubbing, shisha fun house, Karim's cabin, serpentine-M's right (Levy), Earth Wind and Fire and Veege—cheers. This is my final piece of advice to all grads on the road of life, if ever you should come to a fork in the road—take it!

Andrew Cleland

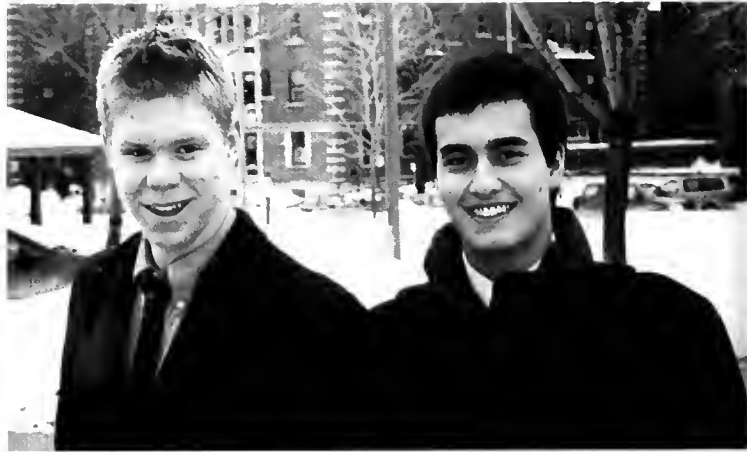

As these words are printed on this paper I wonder whether the ink will last. Will I remember these times? Will I want to? Now it is time to remember, now I have no choice. This environment has imparted me with more lessons and realizations than I ever imagined possible. It has spawned a truly wonderful future. Yet it is not time to forget our memories, our accomplishments and our failures. I will remember those I respect. These people have produced a past to be remembered and a euphoric morning. These people have impacted my character to extreme degrees. Therefore I thank all of them, for being who they are and helping me be who I am. I both love and hate these people. These two types are possible only through care, a never-ending care fueled by respect. These people know who they are. These people do not need to look for themselves here. Over these years time has tried to swallow our memories with visions of the future. It has tried to make the past history. Though it may have failed here, time has driven that once far future to the present. Finally, it is time to step forth into that so called wonderful future.

Bobby Connolly

In retrospect, I believe that Selwyn House is the best thing that has ever happened to me and the past eleven years have introduced me to so many things, such as friendship, wisdom, and the consequences of skipping gym. But seriously, when I leave Selwyn, I know that I will one day have to return as the nostalgia will be too much to bare. I will really miss this place, think about it, eleven years, that's like 65% of my life spent in this one school. I would like to thank BR, BM, and CB, who are some of the teachers that I enjoyed. To all my friends: AL, RA, AC, MS, IA-Z, EA, JN, CN, BK, NZ, TE, AM, SG, PB, and AW, I would like to wish you all the best, as you guys have been the most honest and nicest friends a guy could ever wish for. Many thanks to my Mom and Dad, for picking a house so close to school. I would also like to thank my sisters who have helped me through many occasions. Lastly, to the entire grade 11, I hope you all meet your goals.

Thomas Constantinescu

I remember my first day at Selwyn House, back in grade two. I was reticent to move to a new school, especially since I was switching languages as well. Mr. William Mitchell greeted my father and I at the entrance of the Lucas building. Soon after, I met my first teacher at Selwyn House, Mrs. Carla Burke. My experiences at school have largely contributed to my development as an individual. Apart from the course material, I have learned some important lessons about life and have hopefully become a better person. I am greatly indebted to the teachers who have taught me. For this education, I am grateful. I would like to thank my parents for their love and support. They have helped me through life more than anybody. I would also like to thank my friends, who have made my days better and whose friendship I cherish dearly. To my colleagues, I have known many of you for a full decade now. We have been through much hard work and have enjoyed together the satisfaction of accomplishment. The times we spent away from school, whether it was around the city, on trips, at concerts, or competing in tournaments, stand out as dear memories. I know I will cross paths again with some of you. As for the others, I hope we will keep in touch. To all my fellow classmates, I wish the best of luck and happiness for the years to come.

James Di Miele

After 5 years and many thousands of dollars later, all I can do is thank those who need to be thanked. First and foremost thank you to my parents for just being there. David thank you for annoying me. Nonno, Nonna, e Nonnina grazie molto per la pasta. Jim thanks for being God+Father. And to my friends who have made the last five years both pleasurable and exciting. Tommy thanks for laughing, at even the bad ones. Stefano, you can only be defined as the Veege, partner in corruption and excessive scheming, thank God they keep you off the boot, beware of the closet, S-C-H-E-L-uh uh uh. Doosh, the only "real" one of the bunch, it's finally over. Roberto, the Bosche, you are a Man, pure and simple. I will remember The Car Poolers TH, TH, TS, and new arrival DD. NJ HB SU'URE! Kyam, for never really completely answering my questions and to all the Eibrei's. Giancarlo, your stupid questions always put a smile on my face. To teachers that helped me through my education: P. Litvack, K. Biggs, T.J. Nicoll, B. McBride, R. Wearing thank you. Ciao.

"I never let schooling interfere with my education."
Mark Twain

Alex Ducharme

As I think back on my time spent at Selwyn, many moments come to mind, some pleasant and some not, I'll tell you one thing though, these were not an easy eight years, even though it may seem that way to others. Thanks to my parents for being so lenient and understanding, even when it seemed they couldn't. I'd also like to thank my two brothers for putting up with me during my worst of moods. I'll have a difficult time forgetting my many afternoons spent at Magge's with Tim and my scheming sessions with the Italians. Stefano, you seemed to go through a lot of friends during your time here, and I am grateful to be the longest lasting one! Jimmy we are truly the laziest two to come through this institution. Roberto, you are such a keener, but you manage to do it in style. Tim, we'll always remain the most careless, even when it matters. Jon, I don't know how I would have passed without you. Even though the work-load seemed rough, I still managed to have a blast. After having grown wiser, and learnt from the actions of others, I now realize that the aforementioned few were my real friends. Few teachers have left a positive mark on me, so I think it's worth mentioning the ones that did. MD, TD, PS, CR, RM. Anyone that has come across me here knows that I would much rather die on my feet, than live on my knees.

Thomas Evans

I'm looking around my room, pondering what I should write in these next few lines, and actually it's rather amazing how many Selwyn House things surround me. Besides all the papers, and calculators and old binders, there are a few others like my uniform, lying on the floor of course, but to think that I wore that same uniform for five years is dumfounding. There are a few medals and trophies all of which can be accounted for on one hand and of course the year books that I reread every so often and laugh at how much we have all changed. We were all so immature. Sometimes I wonder how five years has gone by so quickly. I know that a lot of it is due to my unforgettable teachers and coaches. I can also admit that Selwyn might have been a bore if it weren't for my incredible friends. Shabby! Turkey Turkey, Chicken Chicken. Dude! What does mine say? SWEET! We're all still immature! Getting through S H S would have been impossible without the incredible support that my parents gave me, and I can't forget my sisters who were always there if I needed help. You have all made me a more intelligent and more mature person, who is now ready for the real world. I hope! Best of luck to all the grads of 2001!

Chris Fanaberia

It is hard to imagine that five years of my life are all of a sudden flashing by my eyes. In the early days at Selwyn I was an intelligent/party animal/player/prankster and I am proud to say I am still exactly the same. Though it has been hard, this school was perfect for me. Strict enough to keep me out of trouble (most of the time!) and it provided a level of education that I will carry with me for the rest of my life. I have thanks to give around, but mostly at who? Mom, Dad, Peter, Dan and Lisen. I would like to thank you for supporting and believing in me. Also to all the teachers that poured so much effort into my fellow classmates and myself. And finally to the boys, who provided me with so many wonderful memories. Hunting Mahe-Mahe with Timberland and Donche. Late night brusksies with Jack D'LaBows, pranking with Shwarzy and pummping with Trudabl and Herkey. Thanks to you guys school was brought to a whole different level. KK was chill, BBL was simply crazy! Now it's time to say goodbye to five strenuous yet amazing years and I wish everybody luck as we all take another giant step in life.

Jordan Feil

As hard as I try to walk away, something keeps forcing me to look back. In retrospect, the eleven arduous years bearing the jacket and tie of Selwyn House was time well spent. My ups and downs at this school have helped me discover who I really am, and for that I am grateful. The memories that Selwyn House has created will remain with me for the rest of my life. My gratitude begins for the people that matter the most: Mom, Dad and Marisa, thank you for your eternal support and guidance while helping me navigate through the rough waters that often obstructed my course. Yes, high school is theoretically based on education, but equally important are the sacred friendships that you make along the way. I will never forget the JTC (garbs, mitchy, shmu and marv). You are the guys who have got me through this school ever since day one. Taylor, thanks for so many memories, I love you. Lastly I would like to thank the teachers and coaches whose dedication and talent have shaped my eleven year experience (RW, MM, SM, TJN, KB, PS, CR, PL, BW, MD). It is with these words that eleven short, yet long years come to a close.

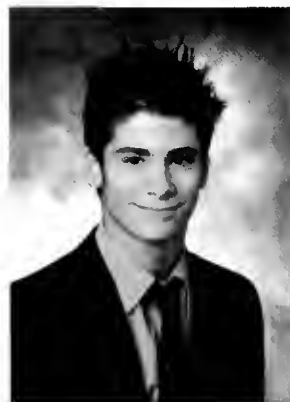

"Yes, there were times, I'm sure you knew when I bit off more than I could chew. But through it all, when there was doubt I ate it up and spit it out. I faced it all and I stood tall and did it my way."

Do the math: during the last five years, I've spent upwards of 7200 hours at Selwyn House. Having only one word for every six hours, I will try not to waste them all with initials or clichés. Of my time at this school, I estimate that one half was spent complaining, the other half laughing. Where did the learning go? Maybe there are three halves in a whole. In all seriousness, though, I will take the liberty of thanking the friends who made class interesting, at the very least: Johnson, Rayan, Burner, Marv, JTC, Joe, Faris for being himself, Jews in general, and anybody else I may have missed. To the teachers: thank you for putting up with my shtick. Most of all, thank you to my family - I love you. Is it possible that I actually have nothing left to say? After all, a Spanish proverb suggests that "The closed mouth swallows no flies." C'mon, you all know that I never shut up. As I head toward new horizons (oops! cliché), I will always remember the small scale ethnic wars and "Me I's" which so marked my stay. But, will I retire the spaz-o-meter? YeSSS! I'll be too busy extracting the flies from my stomach.

Well, it's been 11 very long years that have been memorable to say the least. Over a decade ago I stepped into the building on 95 Cote St. Antoine unaware of the experiences I would have and the friends I would meet. Before I thank my friends and teachers, there are two people I would like to thank for giving me the confidence and the support I needed to get through the Selwyn experience. My parents: Without you I would not be where I am today. To the JTC: Shmu, disrespecting, condescending, "Neber in my life hab I seen an A" Mitchy, causing ruckus at Akiva, in Whistler and Mexico. Cheaps, GTA2 Starvin, we miss you. Also, to Jer, sheepooet and irekommcheder, JW, oranges and apples, RK, Hot & Spicy. To the teachers and coaches: RW, MM, TD, MD, PS, EP, PL, TJN, NAC, KB, and BW, thank you all for your guidance and insight. Also, I'd like to say thank you to: Grandpa Arni, Norma, Case, Tina, Agns, Katherine, Tara, and Gabri. Finally to the graduating class of 2001: it's been a long haul but I know we've benefited in the end. We've been through it all and now we go our separate ways. Good luck to everybody wherever your lives may take you.

Things haven't changed that much. Eleven years ago, faced with the horrifying prospect of my first day at Selwyn, I broke down and wept on Robert Kwok's shoulder in the Lucas Gym; he wasn't exactly beaming, either. The tears have now returned, albeit for a very different reason. Oddly, I struggle to recollect the earlier years of my formal education. I can, however, vividly relate certain moments that seemed less than inconsequential at the time yet that profoundly touch me today. I'll never forget the relationships I've had at Selwyn: Guest, stops snirking! Watching the big-screen with Mitch, playing the clue search game with Bobby, eating snacks with Adam. Although I will rarely see any of them ever again, those memories are the most important things I take with me. I look back with astonishment at how innocent, hopeful, and gosh-darn cute I used to be. I genuinely view those years as the best of my life. This is no maudlin declaration, it is the truth. I have so many people to thank, so many more "jokes" to make. Yet when I look back at these "quotes" decades from now, I might not recall whom each initial stood for. I will certainly not get the in-jokes of the year. However, I will always remember those moments when I was unquestionably a child. Even as I prepare to walk barefoot in the snow, I shall not forget the fury of overshoes. Bye.

Looking back on the six, nearing seven, years I have spent at Selwyn House School, I realize how it did not seem like 60 nearing 70 at all, my time here passed incredibly quickly. While claiming that it passed quickly because I was having fun would be a blatant lie, I have to admit Selwyn wasn't all bad. Thus, I have decided to thank the few teachers who made my time at Selwyn liveable and allowed me to cruise school at my pace.

First, thanks to Roland Glaude for being the coolest homeroom teacher. I'm sure on numerous occasions I came to school at 8:15 and remained "on time." Also, I'd like to thank Brad Moffat for allowing our class to take the last 5 minutes of the rare physics period to slack off. That was chill. Finally, I'd like to show my appreciation for the basketball coaches who let me play in my early years at Selwyn, even though I had absolutely no talent.

Overall, I've come to realize that the aforementioned people are those to whom I actually truly owe a portion of my measly 200 word departure speech. Thus, I leave Selwyn by saying thank you to them. And to the others I will remain in character, and say, "no comment."

Well, it's been a "cough" great five years, and I'm not going to cap it off with some stereotypical quote about the meaning of life or why I enjoyed my time here. It was a good time overall, and so many people made it so worthwhile. Got so many thank-yous to hand out, so let's cut to the chase. RayBan, NarcoX, Lukas, Ordo, Jer, Fana, Herky, Joe, Hendalbane, Rozey, Churchberg, Schayfah, Troodoh, Alana, TomHP, Tommy, Sarah, Gey-T, D Dubya, KK, Salveege, Robust, Speak, and the entire JTC. I'll never forget any of you guys, too many great moments and memories to possibly list. I could go on for hours just writing about the funny moments with y'all in one week. Teachers: KB, PS - the best English classes, TJN - for making history interesting. BB - Media 1: 2 funfunfun, nuff said. BM MD - I'm no scientist but you actually made my Physics/Chem experiences enjoyable. NS, AB, PJ - my west island bruvax, illin'n chillin' at the table, nature area, and just about every other place where there were no popo. -Th4L, never forget it. Someday when I'm rich, we're gonna get those three islands off of Cuba, don't ever doubt it. Last but not least, my family, I couldn't have done it without you guys. It's been a good time boys, in two years I won't be missing the school itself, but there's no denying that I'll miss the people who I spent the last five years of my life with. Lates.

The Roslyn boys myself, Luke "Tony" Reid, and Jeremy Sh. Whitworth. September of '97 marked a major transition in our lives as we apprehensively tied our first ties and threw on our first blazers adorned with the prestigious Selwyn crest. From that day onward, I would embark on five memorable & valuable years. Since then, I've learned countless lessons, I've played hockey in Europe, and football for city champions. Throughout the ups and downs, I could always count on my family, Mom, Dad, Mike - I can't thank you enough. TJN, LP, PS, and PL are teachers that have particularly influenced me. The people have changed the way I think, and have helped me mature through formative years of my life. RW, thanks for caring. Thanks to my hockey & football coaches MM, MD, TJN, SM. Toda boyz Bernstein, did Stanstead yet? G-Z's Thanks Churchill-Smith, churchy, churchberg, spice, whatev. Levy, watch out for the police. Do you remember Mike Modano? I kn Schaffer does. Shack nights didn't work as planned, but Sharx was ft Nacos, Weinstein's was an experience and so was Livia. Andrew the wom (STW), Jonson, and Berner the Original 4 Brian, good times downtown Alana thanks for all the help. Karim, I know you'll do it. Cheaps, the dynas Guester, gr 8 Mrs. Palko's class. Luke and Jer, this year we walk home for the last time, but we take all of our memories and experiences along with us.

Tim Howick

It has been quite the adventure, and finally, it's over. I'd like to thank my friends and family because without them I wouldn't have succeeded in completing my five long years at Selwyn. Mom, Dad, Sal, Charlie, it is because of you that I sit here today writing this farewell. I've had my share of problems, and you've never lost your confidence in me. I thank you for that, and I love you all so much. And of course, I can't forget the boys" M.S., A.D., C.F., T.S., A.H., M.D., S.T., the list goes on. B.B.L. for life baby ZERMATT, DILMATIC PICKLES! Are a few words that will never be forgotten. So I leave you today by saying thank you to all my friends and family. I wish you all happy, long, loving, and prosperous lives. Peace.

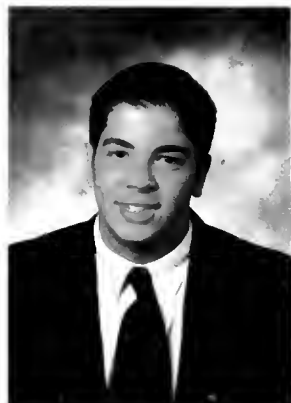

Alex Hrycyk

It is, unfortunately, not possible to sum up 11 years in a mere 250 word essay. So instead of discussing how I have changed during my stay as a "lifer" at Selwyn, I would like to throw some thank-you's out there, to all the people that have stood by me along the way. Mom and Dad, you are the two people that have stayed by me no matter what. In the hardest of times your devotion to me never wavered, and I don't think that I will ever be able to find a way to give you back a tenth of all the things you have done for me. To all my boys, it's been a pleasure sharing these past years with you. Between all of our pranks at school and partying on weekends, I think we'll have some great stories to tell our kids about, when we're the ones putting them through school! (BBL & KK) I will never be able to forget all our crazy times. I decided to omit the usual long list of initials which is found in so many grad quotes, and instead gave a final shout out to all the friends and good teachers I've had over the past eleven years, you know who you are. I hope to be seein' you soon. So this is Alex Hrycyk (a.k.a. Hereky, a.k.a. the Hurricane) sayin' czech ya later, and wishing you the best of luck on the road that lies ahead.

Ryan Kaedbey

Wow. 11 amazing years of my life have to be summed up into a mere 250 words. So many things to remember and so many people to thank. I've gone through some unforgettable moments at Selwyn House: grade 5 and 6 trips, Stratford, Rafting, Spring Ball, and of course, football champions. Thanks MM for being such a great coach. I could go on and on about my memories at Selwyn but there are just too many. So many people have made my stay at Selwyn worth while. Adam, what can I say about such a great friend. Thanks for always being there for me. Jonny, thanks for knocking some sense into me. Roberto, Joe, Guenter, and all you other guys have made my time at Selwyn so much fun. To all the teachers at Selwyn who I've had the pleasure of working with: LM, PS, PL, BG, RW, CR, JW, TD, MD, CB and especially KB. Dad, you are such an inspiration for me and your motivation has always helped me through tough times. Mom, I am so lucky to have you and I respect you more than anything in the world. I love you. Zeina and Ziad, I wouldn't have made it without you guys. Thanks for putting up with me and helping me when I need it. I don't know what I did to deserve such great siblings like you. It seems like just yesterday that I was walking into Selwyn House for the first time and now I write this passage still shocked that it's all over. Good luck to all the grads of the year 2001.

Faris Karim

10 years ago I started the SHS journey wearing a Hawaiian shirt with matching shorts, this year I can't believe it's over. So many fond memories: 2Nutz, Stratford, rafting. I first wanna thank all my teachers for being my mentors and expanding my mind, y'all hold a spot in my heart that'll always be yours. Football was the best thing to happen to me since birth to my coaches: TD, MD, WE ARE CHAMPIONS FOREVER! Mr. Maurovich, I'll never forget what you've done for me, thanks for making me a football player. Thank you for helping me Mr. Martin, WE'RE JACKED!!!! To all my friends (u know who u are) and everyone that stood by me during high and low tide: thanks, we WILL be friends forever. To everyone that stood in my way and kicked me when I was down: good luck and I'll be watching u through my rear view, for I know I'll be far ahead of u. EXTRA special thanks to Daddy and Basil, I love u and will always be there for you, you've only done the same for me, nothing but unconditional love. To all the mother figures in my life: thanks. To my mom: look what u left behind, I'll see u at the cross roads, for I don't want to see u now. If I forgot anyone, I'm sorry, I'm only human!

Eleven years ago, forty young boys marched into Selwyn House's dining room, awaiting their destiny. Today, only 24 of these men remain, and it is with great pride that I can say to be one of them. Firstly, I would like to thank Mom, Pop and Ricky for pushing me so hard through the eleven years I have spent at this school and I love you all very much. Secondly, I would have to thank my friends who have bared with me for most of my life: TC, RK, JL, AW, NZ, HT, PC, SS, TH, CN, AG, LR. Finally, I would like to thank the great teachers of this great school that I will never forget: KA, KB, TJN, MD, TD, BM, PL, AL, BMcB, JG, MB, RM. So many unforgettable memories: Gr 6 Ottawa, Gr 9 Robocurl 99 champs, Gr 10 Stratford-Hamilton-Quebec City in the back of the bus with TC, AL (2000), AG! It's been fun and I guess I'll see some of y'all around, so later days!

I only need two words to describe what has made the past eight years of my life so rewarding: great people. Mom, Dad and Patrick, I couldn't have made it through without you guys. All the lessons, activities, projects, Patrick's anecdotes. I'd like to thank the entire teaching staff for making my learning experience at Selwyn House so meaningful. In particular, I'd like to express my gratitude to two very special teachers: Ms. Palko, without you I'd probably still be the same shy and non-confrontational Grade Eight boy I was when I went into your class (most people would have preferred me that way). Mr. Nicoll, I'm going to miss your open-minded and thought-provoking courses. You truly changed the way I perceive the world around me. To my good friends: Tony, Chris C.S., Chris N., Hendy, Faris, Schaffer and the rest of the Arab Police, just think of all our good times: 737, Thursday Night, take id's, martinis, disco, famine, clubbing, Karim's Kabin, wine tasters club, the big M, Nazar's Shisha fun house, Sereptine (right Chris?). We had a lot of fun together, and still managed to learn some things in the process. I don't think we'll ever forget our crazy downtown excursions, the last minute exam studyations at my house, and all of our classic inside jokes. Hopefully we'll keep in touch and have many wine tasters meetings in the future. Just Remember: Like a fine glass of wine, let's take things only "one sip" at a time.

"FREEZE! Cross your legs, cross your arms, close your mouth!" These words, so clearly etched in my mind, marked my first gym lesson at Selwyn. Since then, many more valuable lessons and memories have followed. The other day, a fellow lifer commented on how difficult it is to dust off old memories. I could not agree more. For as long as I can remember, I have been making the long trek from my home in Brossard to my backyard on Côte St-Antoine. My memories of Selwyn are scattered flashes of my life. Flash! I see myself, one of the biggest boys in Gr. 2 skating at Westmount Arena, only to fall repeatedly. 24 Sussex Drive in Ottawa - our first dance. Flash! I see myself now, the smallest player on the court - rafting with friends - getting my grad ring. I look at my grade one photo the more things seem to change, the more things stay the same. With the blink of an eye, I have gone from tallest to shortest, from Mr. Pylat to Ms. Biggs, but my babyface and size remain unfazed. I have grown up on Côte St-Antoine, surrounded by the coolest group of friends, teachers and family. To name you all would be impossible. Mr. Shannon always taught me to be concise. Thanks to you all, especially Mama, for knotting my tie all these years.

It seems like yesterday that I was the nervous 6 year old walking into the doors of Selwyn House School. My parents weren't the wealthiest parents but they believed that my education was worth it each year. Even as they separated they pulled together to allow me to finish high school at Selwyn, and for that I thank them because you have no idea what finishing Selwyn means to me. Also I would like to thank my two sisters, although you drive me crazy I still enjoy watching out for you. To my grandparents I can't thank you all enough. As for big Will Mitchell, I am probably going to be the only one to thank you. Your understanding of my parents financial situation and your providing of financial aid for the past two years is the reason why I am writing this grad quote for the Selwyn yearbook and not some other high school yearbook. All the boys who helped me enjoy this school, MS, TC, AC, AM, PS, CM, EA, RK, KS, and to Jon and Iha thanks for the lifts all the time, I appreciate it. It's been a long ride, but in the end it was worth it. I will miss the good times at Selwyn but I'm sure there is plenty still to come. Boys keep in touch, and to all the lifers, it has been a heck of an 11 years.

Eleven years and I still love my school. It's a way of life that I cannot forget. Firstly, Thanks to my parents for choosing such a unique school where I met many unique people. Thanks to CPB for strength (Don't worry we'll get through everything together). To J.B., I treasure you and I won't be able to forget you, ever. M.X.D., soon, our paths will cross again. Langer, the ROZEN (tm) label will be up soon enough. F.K., You're a good friend to everyone. Thanks to all the teachers for the guidance and help. I'm proud to say that these eleven years have flown without a shred of regret. I truly enjoyed my time and made friends for life. Selwyn House School is the type of will be around for centuries to come.

Let's see, 11 years at one place. Lots of memories, good and bad. Some I will forget as fast as I can. Thanks to Mom and Dad for helping me through the tough times. Thanks to Mr. McMillan for all the great times at Band. The trips were great. Thanks to all the teachers (I would like to name all of them, just being at this school for 11 years, there are too many teachers). My classmates, who are a great bunch to be around. I liked to congratulate all the lifers who have managed to keep their sanity for 11 years. I know that we've been waiting for this year for too long. Thanks to my Brother and Sister, Christine and Peter, the best motivators of my life. Thanks for standing by even though you guys were in Germany. I will never forget Selwyn House, it has been branded into my brain, there to remain until I die. Not to worry, I'll visit some time in the future.

Christopher Merritt

As the final chapter of my five years at Selwyn House comes to a close, I am reminded of all that I've learned and accomplished. I think of all the people that made my stay at Selwyn possible. Firstly, I'd like to thank my Mom, Dad, Grandparents, and little brother for always being there for me during the tough times and for always lending a hand when it was needed. I can't leave Selwyn without thanking all of my friends and teammates who motivated me and pushed me to strive for success. I wouldn't be the person I am today if it weren't for all of my friends: Phil, Alex, Jeremy, Jon, Eli, and Rayan. I will always be indebted to you. I would like to thank BB, CB, KB, MD, TD, BG, RG, PL, DP, PS, and RW, for being incredible teachers. You don't get nearly as much credit as you deserve. I would also like to thank CB, MB, PG, MM, SM, and AP for being such knowledgeable coaches and for making my ongoing athletic career so enjoyable. Basketball and Football have been incredible at Selwyn these past five years. GMAA Sr Football Champions. We finally did it boys! On a final note, I'd like to wish all of the graduates of 2001 the best of luck in the future. Though most of us are going our separate ways, our days at Selwyn House will not soon be forgotten.

To summarize my eleven years at Selwyn House in two hundred words or less would be impossible, so I won't try. Instead, I will acknowledge that my experiences gained will last me a lifetime, and I am that much better for it. As for thanking people, everyone involved in my educational experience deserves recognition. A great eleven years, all of which will stay in my memory, along with the people I have met, and the life altering experiences of, despite rumor, an excellent institution.

Chris Nacos

First and foremost, I'd like to thank and acknowledge my loving parents and the two best sisters a brother could dream of having. I'd also like to acknowledge C. Rasmussen and J. Werbiski, P. Litvack and the Downey Bros. Also, T. J. Nicoll for teaching me the most fascinating courses at Selwyn, and doing such a marvelous job. To Mr. Paoletti for giving me the confidence to excel in bball from the get go, and instilling a sense of pride in my achievements. Mr. Shannon, for teaching me how to write more succinctly and Ms. Biggs for fine tuning my writing and being such an impeccable teacher. Mr. Williams for working so tirelessly for our futures. Finally, Mr. Wearing, just by making Selwyn more bearable on bad days. Most importantly, I'd like to acknowledge the boys, in no particular order: Spierman Church for the trips and great friendship for past, present and future. Snidy and Bryson for many, many years of solid friendship. Hendy and Levy for the Karim's Cabin jokes and other puns, and the funny weekends. Antonio Reid, for all the jokes at each other's expense, but being great friends when all's said and done. Jer, Ordo, Gueter, for some great times in class or at lunch or on the weekend. Berner, for the double McB classes and all great laughs in general. And, finally, Faris for just being Faris. Anyway, we all leave on our own journeys yet we'll all be bros forever. Just remember "Live every day like it's your last, then one day, you'll be right."

Jonas Naimark

To think I had eleven years to perform this last solemn rite, and of course I left it to the bitter end. Indeed, this was a ridiculous amount of time to spend in one place. I'm still not quite sure if Selwyn was an ideal environment to invest so much of my life, though I cannot say that I regret this journey. The extraordinary people I met along the way are what made it worthwhile. They are the reason I will never forget, it is to them I owe my thanks. I still faintly remember that eventful first day of grade one, being too young to even fathom what lay ahead. Only after superimposing this memory on my final days at Selwyn can I begin to appreciate the distance traveled.

"For long you live and high you fly and all that you touch and all that you see

It has been for many, including myself, a long five years. For others it has even been longer, some people having started Selwyn House School in grade one. Yet, against all odds, most of us have survived and soon we will all be starting a new stage of our lives. Looking back upon my time at Selwyn House, I can hardly bring myself to think about what life will really be like after I finish here. Through the past five years, Selwyn House has helped me improve in almost all of my academic areas. I would like to thank all of the teachers I have had during the past five years for helping me achieve my goals. I would also like to thank the late Dr. Harker for the privilege of being one of the English students he taught. To my friends, thank you for being there when I needed you guys. The past years were improved greatly thanks to you guys, and I hope to see all of you in the future. To the graduates of 2001, good luck to you guys in all of your future endeavors and may you find happiness in whatever you do. Finally, to the class of 11C, a last piece of advice: remember in whatever you do in the future, try not to be as nervous as I was on that first book talk.

Eric Ordonselli

Wow, 11 years of Selwyn and I still haven't gone insane. Looking back, it's a miracle I lasted so long. I'd like to thank Mr. Moffat, Mr. Mike Downey, Mr. Litvack, Ms. Biggs, and the Boyler for making my learning experience at Selwyn worthwhile. I'd also like to give a big "Thank You" to my family for their love and support throughout the years, you guys were there every step of the way, and I couldn't have done it without you. However, when it comes down to it, my journey through Selwyn wouldn't have been the same without the amazing group of students who shared it with me. Guys who've been there since the beginning like Jon-lan, Adam, Joe, Rayan, Churchberg, Max and Alan, and others guys like Faris, Luke, Jer, Guenster, Roberto, Nacos, Stobo and Burner who've joined along the way. It's time to go our separate ways, and I hope you guys keep in touch. I want to wish my bro good luck, and I hope he gets everything I got out of Selwyn and more. I'd also like to personally thank every staff member and student at Selwyn who bought the Pilot Down CD, in no time you'll be saying "I knew him when." I'm excited about the future, but I'll never forget the past. Selwyn and the relationships I've formed within its walls have been the biggest part of my life so far, and it's hard to let something like that go. Peace-Out, Ordo

Luke Reid

These are solid words, hardened and made real by ink and memories and truth... so I leave them cautiously and nervously as an epigraph for what is to come. Here we go... thanks to my mom and sister and Leonard, for all your love and support. I love you guys. To my friends: Jer, Church, Stephanie, Nacos, Smiley, Farouk, Mr. Magoo, Ordo, Schaeffer, Guest- for making me laugh and realize the importance of friendship... or something like that, right? To the profs: Ms. Polko (Midi, thanks for making me stay), Mr. Glasspoole (for the math and subsequent sound effects), Mr. Nicoll (So books and history are not boring). Who would have thought it? I would mention Mr. Shannon but I do not think he would care... and to Ms. Biggs, I do not know much about gods, but I think you are definitely getting close, honestly, thank you for becoming something more than a teacher... a person I respect and am privileged to have known and hopefully continue to know. Rainer Maria Rilke once wrote, "To endure is all. But perhaps I will go with Whitman on this one, (as he never fails and is somewhat less pessimistic) and say: Enough to merely be! Enough to breathe! Joy! Joy! Joy! All over joy!"

Adam Rozenchwajg

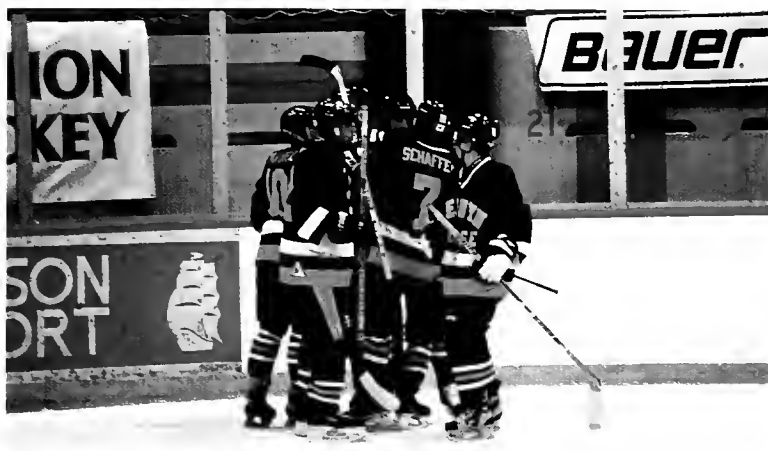

We're a product of our surroundings. So, being at Selwyn for 11 years has changed me, whether I like it or not. The past 11 years have held memories that will be hard to top. Spring Bails '99-'00, Stratford, rafter, football champs, to name a few. Thanks to my parents: "Ma", I wouldn't have lasted 10 minutes without you. I love you. Dad, you're the best. Charles, sharing the car. Anyone who knows me knows how much I value my friends: Rayan (you're the closest thing to a brother I'll ever have), Rob (Grand M. and pizza), Joe (what can I say...), Shawn (Heeeeey). The best is yet to come, boys. To the girls that have added beauty to my life, Laura (You'll never be able to understand what our friendship means to me), Alyssa (bamb!), Con (Everyone falls in love...). Thanks. To be called a "teacher," is a great honor. It involves more than reading out of textbooks. Some people that I consider "teachers": LM (you started it all), PL, RW, KB, BB, MM, MB. You deserve more appreciation than you receive. To everyone else, thanks for the support, and keep in touch! To the librarians, I cannot believe we made it. Remember when the grade 4's were "old"? Eleven years ago, I was a 6-year-old boy, crying on the front steps of the Lucas building, afraid to let go of my mom's hand. Now, I leave, with the same tears in my eyes, a little bigger, maybe, but not all that different.

Stefano Salvo

Before I start rambling, I'd like to give my thanks and appreciation to the people that have aided me the most in my life, my family. Dad, after spending 50 grand on my education, you will finally realize that it was worth it. Grazie as'sai' Ma, for putting up with my negative complaining and supporting me. To my bros, Gianni, Sandro, Marco thanks for the countless beatings and lessons that have taught me so much. Friends may come and go, but my family will always be my blood. I love you guys. Well, I guess this thing they call High School is over. I couldn't have done it without making it a blast. Roberto (bosch), you truly are the MAN. Jimmy, my corrupt associate, you only wish you were Sicilian. What's in the closet? Douch, the only one of "them" I respect. Joey, you rat. Gui, you're a superthug. Thanks to the rest of my regime, NJ, Mmo, Tommy, Giancarlo, PG, Kyam, JW (Forza Ferrari) and those I've not mentioned. To KJB, relax. It's been a pleasure mocking the ECS big-ores. For such a dirty place, La Salle has enlightened me, thanks castagna (SP). To the teachers that actually aided me, KB, TD, AP, DP, RG my appreciation is evident. There are two types of people. The ones who work, and the ones who let them work. I think my presence has been felt at Selwyn and I wonder who will take over what I've left behind. You'll all see in 10 years what Salveege has become. Ciao!

Phil Schaffer

First off I'd like to thank my family. My father to whom I owe my time at Selwyn and practically everything else in my life to, my mom for helping when sports got in the way, Marc for always making sure I didn't screw up, and Laura for always being there. My time at Selwyn was short, but good. Tons of people made this possible, Merritt, nofx, peel, $shots/outsideprovidence, best buds Hendy, shark, M1, T outta SHS/it's the wine talking, Mike Modano/serge, kick it into 5th Jer, 40oz, to freedom, Guinness, Luke. I'm a lawyer/hardbody Hayden, you're my business/jesus/stansted called Levy, causality of war/arabian cops, Churchberg, schaffe, Tory, 5 goals vs. lcc guest NY's gonna get it/mc's children, Ordo, C B songs, cheap, W S S A FOOTBALL CHAMPS. It took us 2 years but we did it. Hockey trip to Sweden and Copenhagen haaaaaaaden, selwyn tournament champs. I'd like to thank some teachers/coaches made this an easier time: M M, S M, T J N, M D, T D, B M, P S, K B, L M, R G. Of course I can't forget da girls: Alexis, Mia, Alex, Sarah, Alana, Kerry, Tania, Diana, Maxine. It's been a blast, see you around. "I'm so grateful for this life of mine - the ones I didn't thank, I will some other time." Limp Bizkit if I'm off to Switzerland next year, so let's raise the pints high and take a drink and never think and here's to the past.

Selwyn has finally come to an end. What can I say, the people here are cool. Selwyn couldn't have been this good without my family though. Dad, you are truly the best father anyone could ask for (don't flatter yourself) you have done a great job at raising two children, after all you are my role model. Mom, there are no words that can tell you how much I love you. Remember, good things come in small packages. You have always been there for me, and always gave me the benefit of the doubt, thanx Alex. What can I say, you are my favorite sister. You know how much you mean to me so there's no need to waste space, you are my best friend, and you never doubted me in any way, I love you. Now to the people that made Selwyn what it is to my b-t, S T, dude you're awesome, to T H, your DILMATICNESS makes you such a great person and made us have good times, to the rest of DA BOYS T S, C F, T P H, K S, M S, A B, and A H. Thanx guys. The teachers are also great, special thanx to P Shannon, and R Nincheri, thank you for caring as much as you did, I appreciate it. Props to the Senior Football team, we made it all the way that's something to remember. GBB, we had good times hehehe. Thanx to everyone especially my family. Dad.

After 11 years at the same school I can still remember the first day I walked in. I was frightened, I wanted to go home but Mr. Pylat grabbed my hand and told me to follow him. Now as I let go, I leave behind countless years of memories: ball hockey tournaments, the juicer etc. As I leave I'd like to thank my parents for forking up the cash to send me here, and always being there when I needed you, also my two bro's, and to EA, normal people don't put their feet out first TE, Whipped BC, PS2 and Julia. Later Selwyn.

Trevor Shannon

It is hard to believe that it's been 5 years since I first got here. To tell you the truth, it feels more like 10. Yes, it has been hard at times (detentions and various trips to different offices), but I have managed to get by somehow. To my teachers, I'm sorry if I caused you trouble. I only wanted to make your jobs more exciting. Thanks KB, MD, TD, MM, SM, TN, PS, RW. If I'm any smarter now than I was before, it's because of you guys. I certainly cannot forget to thank my various companions in crime who have helped me make it through Selwyn in one piece. Once again, thanks TH, MS, CF, AH, AD, ST, MS, KS, GG, SA, JD, TH, SS, YM. I would attempt to write out a list of all the good times we've had, but my laziness probably does not come as a surprise. And last but not least, thanks to my fam, for supporting me throughout the years. Next year I'll be off your back. So, as I graduate from Selwyn, I can only hope that it remains a civil community and that no ruffians cause any trouble in years to come. I thought that it would be appropriate for me to leave you with a quote that I came up with.

"Jump rope is a fun game when you are reading a book about gorillas."
- Trevor Shannon

Kyam Shell-Schnitzer

One fall day, as I sat teary-eyed on the sidelines my father came up to me and said "Finish what you start, give it your best and make yourself proud."

Well I did it. I kept on going when I wanted to throw in the gloves. I worked as hard as I could and I'm finally proud to say that I did it. But I didn't do it. We did it. As a class we made it, as a grade we made it, as a family we made it and only then as a person I made it. We did it together and we can never forget that. To all those along the way who lent a hand—my gratitude is endless. But there are those in particular who deserve it most. Mr. Bedard, thanks for making my visions a reality. Ms. Biggs, I look forward to English class because of you. Mr. Litvack, thanks for helping and caring. Mr. Muflat and the science guys, inspiration and curiosity lasts a lifetime, to M.M. thanks for the opportunity (CITY CHAMPS 2001), and to all the teachers who put up with our French classes, thanks! The appreciation continues. Tommy, for being there for me. James, for forcing me to smile; to Mitchy, Trevor, Shawn, and Tim thanks for taking me under your wing and teaching me how to throw eggs, Marc's (lame!), and to the Veege, thanks for the protection. We had a great time! To Beno and Lisa, we got to stick together. Dad, stay strong. I love you, to my grandparents for everything and more, and finally to the strongest person I know, you're the reason why I'm able to make it through each day—I love you mom.

We had a great time together.

Let that be etched in our minds as we go explore the unknown.

Andrew Sniderman

With these final words, the Sniderman legacy at Selwyn comes to an end. For the last twenty years, a "Snidy" has walked the halls. Alas, all good things must come to end. These last five years have been very special. It's not the brick and mortar that I will remember, but the people that made the experience worthwhile. TJN, KB, PL, PS, and BG, you made it a pleasure to be a student. I want to extend heartfelt thanks. More than anything else, you taught me how to learn. As for all my great buddies, you helped put a smile on my face every day. C.N., C.C.S., L.R., S.L., C.B., M.H., F.K., J.I.L., and E.O., thanks for all the good times. Original Four, we've done enough hacking for a lifetime. Finally, I must thank the most beautiful family in the whole world for always being there, you're my support and my inspiration. Mom, Dad, Yoni, Jon, Sam, Rob, I love you more than you'll ever know. Don't worry Mom and Dad. Although it may seem that I walk out of Selwyn as a young man, I'll always be your baby.

"I have discovered the secret that after climbing a great hill, one finds that there are many more hills to climb. I have taken a moment here to rest, to steal a view of the glorious vista that surrounds me. But I can rest only for a moment. For my long walk is not yet ended."

After nine years, my time at Selwyn House has come to an end. My daily ritual of waking up minutes before eight to get to homeroom on time, has finally come to an end. I will finally be able to sleep in. I would like to first thank my parents for forking up the cash to send me to this school. I'd also like to thank my teachers, your perseverance to get the best out of me frustrated me at times, but in the end will serve me well throughout my upcoming academic challenges. Thanks a bunch to all my friends NZ, JN, CN, BK, PB. A special thanks to Julia, you made grade eleven a year I'll never forget. Thanks to all who helped me when I hadn't done my homework, without you I would have been screwed. I honestly believe that people can't fully appreciate things until they no longer have them, and I am certain that next year I will miss this school immensely. Congrats and good luck to all the class of 2001.

I was here but now am gone
I left this quote and said so long

Stojan Stojanovski

It's been close to 9 years that I've been part of this Selwyn community, and they've been the best years of my life. All the memories: Stratford, Grad, New York/Florida (gold), and Italy. So many to thank in such a small space, first of all, Special Thanks to my parents who have supported me all the way! To all the guys who have made the dayz go by so fast: HT, PC, PM, JN, CM, BC, CB, RA, PB, TE, RK, KS, BK, MK, JL, RK. All u guys have a place in my heart, we are the class of 2001, that is something to be proud of. Good luck to y'all. Eternally grateful to teachers: MD, BM (Buffalo McBridge), BM (We're actually in the third millennium!), TD, JmaeM (Booger Janne), KB (Sheensh), LM (Quiet!), BG, PS, RW, DP (Immature Kidz), RG (M. Renaud) and NAC. The only message I can pass on is cherish the dayz u have left, because soon u will be writing this quote wondering what u could have done. I have just one last thing to say: No more summer reading and booktalks.

"We all take different paths in life, but no matter where we go, we take a little of each other everywhere." — Tim McGraw

Mitchell Sweibel

For over a decade I've been living here on Cote St. Antoine persevering and finally succeeding. It has been a rigid schedule, although the memorable experiences and lasting friendships of the Selwyn universe have elevated even the darkest days. In the land of segregation, I have crossed the guarded borders and must give universal thanks: Ma, for all the notes, the love, the care, the constant BS and for keeping your sanity, I love you eternally. Dad, u r the brightest man I'll ever meet, thank for finally instilling RESPECT. Car, what would I do without all your un-repaid favors? Morg, thank for making life hell and be yourself, cause Gounner your gonna be the greatest disturber ever! Gramma B, Morr, Zandes & Bubbs, you mean the world to me. Thank for everything. A shout out to the boyz: JTC, shmu(don't disrespect), garbz(times at akiva), cheapshit list), starv'n(ciaudia), and to the rest of the crew around the world, GBB (schwartz), kk, trev(sunshine) and shawny (leopolds mom, the hoe's on the south side), and 2 all the other bums: J L, boss(bishops, T O) and TOMASS. I'd lyk to thank all the coaches, MM (for helping in life and football), the downey's, AP, SM, PG and the boyler's. We're champions 4 life(SHS 35-D'Arcy McGee 2100). To all the teachers for making things better and WORSE: CM, KB, RW, EP, BW, and all the french teachers for simply dealing w/our st. It's been a pleasure! So put your windows down, zone out, buckle up, cause I'm about to go.

Humberto Tang

How can I possibly be capable of summing all my memories in 250 words. Anyway, I'll take a shot at it. Eight years in Selwyn House is just like riding on a roller coaster. There are ups and downs since life in Selwyn isn't easy + all those delightful memories (Stratford, Rafting, Music Trips), I'll never forget them. And now, it's time to observe the mysterious world outside of this school. Firstly, I have to mention my last words + special thanks to all my good buddies: PC (So I heard that you have a crush on Malka), KS (Stop begging for food, you are going to EXPLODE!), SSS (Don't feel bad about your name) and please, stop SPAZING all the time!, RA (The Matrix has you!), BK, RK, PB, JN, CN. I'll miss you all + keep in touch. Thanks to all the love and support that my parents have given me in all these years, I won't make it without them. My bro Nano, do you think one of us is adopted? I think it's true! Eight years sounds like a long time for most people, but for me, it passed by at the speed of light. Also, thanks to all teachers, it's great having them around in school: KB, PS, LM, PL, MD, JM, JW & BM. Lastly, good luck to all graduates of 2001, and enjoy the rest of your life!

Eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow you may die"

I can remember my first day at Selwyn House as if it were yesterday. Some liars. I am sure, would find that to be as challenging as recollecting their day of birth. Despite the memory, it has been a long passage. In my time here I have changed a great deal as a person, and it is much thanks to the great guys I got to know and spends most of my waking hours with. Selwyn House, whether you like it or not, becomes a major part of your life, as I am sure you have heard, and has an unavoidable impact on your state of being. I am certain that these past few years have well prepared me for the road ahead. Most importantly, however, they have offered me priceless laughs, moments, memories and friendships.

The thought of someday leaving Selwyn House had never seemed like something feasible, and when it does come, it's shocking. Life beyond this palace of wild and out of control boys is foreign to us all. But, I am sure that we are ready to venture off and discover what else is out there for us to conquer. I hope that it can live up to my extraordinary high-school experience.

So here's out to the Townies, the Krew, the Stallions, the Boys! Take it easy, see you at reunion. oh god!

Of all things to live by, never let your schooling get in the way of your education.

School? When was the last time I was in school?

Jeremy Whitworth

First of all, I would like to thank all my parents and my sister for everything they have done for me, and for putting up with me over the last 17 years. The time here has been fun and somewhat educational. Second, to the Roslyn boys, Luke & Matt, we've been going to school together now for 10 years, encountered numerous memorable experiences & now the time has come to take separate paths. Luke, I've known you for your whole life, you've been a great friend, thanks for being there all these years. Matt, you've made these last five years fun and interesting. Hayden, you're a great friend and one day we will make it to St. Andrews. Phil, remember it's only 40oz till freedom. Eric, intramurals wouldn't have been the same with out you. Nacos, you've made English class fun over the last three years. Guest, I will never forget your "Sometimes" performance. Its been 5 long years, and now time is winding down at Selwyn. I would like to give thanks to the teachers who made my time here enjoyable and helped me along the way: TJN, KB, PS, TD, B Buffalo M, & RW. Mr. Boyle, thanks for the great golf trips. To all the other guys Roberto, Churchy, Merritt, & everyone else, thanks I will always remember our nights at Sharx & McGibs', D.L.B.oz, golf trips.

Daniel Wilner

"If I have seen further it is by standing on the shoulders of giants" (Isaac Newton)

There are many giants upon whose towering shoulders I have seen further during my eight years at Selwyn House. Ms. Biggs, who showed me how to love the word, written or spoken. Dr. Harker, who showed me how to love learning — adieu, Mr. Shannon, who showed me how to love writing. Moffat and Mopez, who showed me how to love running up mountains (real or figurative). Mr. Nicoll, who showed me how to love thinking. I thank you all, for an incredible view. Dad and Mum, thank you for raising me to these high shoulders; you are ever-illuminating giants in your own right. As for Thing One and Thing Two, I love you bros. Thanks, of course, to the guys who made my life here fun: Lukas, Churchberg, Faruke, Guest, Adrian, Kyam, Ilia. I will treasure the great experiences I have had at Selwyn, not only events — plays, tournaments, trips, celebrations — but also moments shared and enjoyed with great people every day. Above all, I have learned from Selwyn to appreciate the daily engagement life can afford. I will miss this school always.

Andrew Wong

Just think about this: eleven years of waking up early in the morning, going to the same school, living in the same environment. You'd think that anyone would be grateful to say goodbye to this place, but I know I'll miss it. The time I've spent here is more than half my life, which is a lot. Next year, I might not be able to see all of my friends anymore, some of which I have known for 13 years. I've had some great times at Selwyn, but because I was lucky enough to have my parents send me here. So I'd like to thank them and all the teachers that have made my education possible. I once longed to leave this school, for it to be all over, so that I would never enter these classrooms again, but now, I feel like I haven't spent enough time here.

Going through the early years of your life is like learning how to walk all over again. Selwyn was like a hand supporting me as I tested the waters and tried to walk on my own. Even though it is time for me to move onto greater things, I will never fully want to leave the embrace of Selwyn's school life.

Nicholas Zarahia

I'm writing this with jaded eyes and well-merited nostalgia, listening to U2 and feeling awfully reminiscent. God, there have been so many quoteworthy events. There was Halifax and seven players, rafting and a close brush with death, recess soccer when you're really ON, cast party — wow did I have fun organizing that!, no-look Chicago — oh s#@!%, spring halls, grads, this h to me. At a time when there was so little to really care about I could always say that word Selwyn with pride. It gave me a fiery sense of patriotism that I haven't felt about anything except my love for music and made so many experiences that I count among my defining moments possible. I won't extend a plea for all you reading this to keep in touch. Those of you with whom I've founded irreplaceable friendships know who you are and I am confident that wherever life's journey takes us our roads will cross again. To the rest of you, good luck, stay chilllll (!), don't disrespect(!). Remember Selwyn as your sanctuary in these very tumultuous years. I'll miss it all.

This fall the Senior Gryphon Football team ended a long, great season by winning the juvenile city championship.

Despite a slow start to the season with the loss of a key player, Tim Howick, the Gryphons managed to pull out and win their last six games to capture the gold. Domenico Brunetti jumped in to help the running attack. This, along with his great kicking, was a key to several wins. A young offensive line, Tim Rossy and Jon Munzar, led by Seniors Adam Rozencwajg, Faris Karim and Rayan Kaedbey, was one of the important things needed this year. In a playoff game, the loss of linebacker Roberto Brunetti was a blow, but Alex Bussandri filled in and played two ways to keep the team alive. Trevor Shannon, our quarterback, went down with an ankle injury, but rebounded back to lead the team to a championship. While he was out, Boule Nguyen stepped up and held the team together. Slotback Mitchell Sweibel had another great year.

The defence was anchored by the veteran play of linebacker Philip Shaffer and safety Matt Hendy. In the championship game rookie Marc Schwarz's key interception was the turning point in the game. The Gryphons responded with a scoring drive of ninety yards, including key catches by seniors Chris Meritt and Geoff Garbarino.

The juvenile football team has much to look forward to next year, as veterans Alex Bussandri, Scott McMillan, and Torrey Mitchell return. Much thanks to our coaches, Mike Downey, Tom Downey, and head coach Mike Maurovich.

The Bantam Gryphons had a very resilient and successful season, only coming one game short of the finals. Our strong defense, led by Jorda Benjamin, Ben Meadow, Alexis Vallée and Matt Peris stopped the opposing offences to minimal scores. With countless hours of hard work at practice our bantam Gryphons plowed a good path for the future. We were led by powerhouse offense, led by running backs Dimitri Manousos, Justi Moretti-Montpetit, quarterback Beno Shell-Schnitzer and an offensive line led by Tom Spencer. The Bantam Gryphons have much to look forward to next year as Charles Ayas, Mike Bowey, Tom Kirk and Joseph Stonehouse return for their final year of eligibility. Many thanks go out to Coach Steve Mitchell and Colin Boyle for their encouragement and wisdom.

This was the 'Baby Gryphons' first year playing as a team and the first few games weren't easy. But, because of the positive coaching from Mr. Martin and Mr. Boyle, they strove for victory. After all the training they went through, their hard work eventually paid off. With the top rate running of Jason Zunenshine and the crushing tackles of David Friedman, the two teams placed very well at both Selwyn and L.C.C. tournaments. It's a long wait until next season!

This year's Juvenile Soccer Team had a promising roster, with returning veterans Tom Constantinescu, Eli Mantis (captain), and Tommy Hatzithomas. Eight members of the team travelled to the CAIS Senior Soccer Tournament last year and high hopes for a successful season were placed on the team. However, being in a tough division, the Gryphons struggled through regular season play, coming so close every game. A crossbar or an unlucky bounce seemed to plague the team, always coming up one goal too short. The Senior Soccer Tournament held at Stanstead was the highlight of the season. For four days, teams from private schools all over the country gathered to play-off for the National Championship. The Gryphons started out well losing by only one goal to the tournament's heavy favourite. The team would most likely have made the playoffs but the tournament was cancelled midway through. Some moments to remember: Fanaberia's slide tackles, Constantinescu's deadly penalty shots, Alan's only header of his life against Loyola, fitness practices, Shadeed's brief scoring title lead, Eli's belly slide after scoring against Northwood, and Carlo's famous bicycle kick. Many thanks to coach Alfie Paoletti who motivated the team all year as well as to the fans who came out to watch the games.

Badminton

With Mr. Litvack's fine teaching skills (in badminton), the life and the fun in badminton were brought to life through small in-house tournaments. In the span of two months, we were able to improve our talents. Brought to life through heavy competition, physical endurance and fun badminton has to be one of the best sports options offered during the fall semester.

With a total of 21 people and only four courts, it became hard for all of us to play at once. In the end, we really enjoyed this sport!

he Senior hockey team's year proved to be one of great accomplishment. We had the chance to participate in many tournaments and fared rather well in most with an appearance in the finals at Bishop's, as well as two victories, one at our own Selwyn House tournament and the other at Centennial Regional. The team had all the essential assets to be a contending hockey team with returning veterans Phil Schaffer, providing solid hits, and Sam Avrith, having the speed and completing key passes. Our defensive game was strongly held together by Goalie Tom Evans, who provided many game saving saves, and defenceman Matt Hendy as well. Other key assets to the team's success were Chris Churchill-Smith and Trevor Shannon, who proved to be more than just skilled hockey players, but all round leaders on and off the ice. Rookie Torrey Mitchell came out strongly providing his team with the needed skill and finesse. Rookie defenceman Scott McMillan came through for the team with his stay at some defenceman ways, while rookie Alex Bussandri provided the team with key hits. While the end of the year was somewhat disappointing, with the team missing out on the playoffs by inches, our season was an exciting, memorable one. Many thanks to Coaches Mitchell and Nicoll.

At the beginning of this winter, the bantam hockey team looked...well, not talented. After a bit of friendly criticism from coaches Maurovich and Shannon, the team was inspired and began to win. The team was also lifted by their new defensive coach, Mr. David Cude. The quickly rising team also had a wonderful trip to Massachusetts, where they were victorious in two out of their three games. Led on offence by Dimitri "Greek Streak" Manousos, who had a 50-goal season, the team rallied together to beat Bourget 7 to 5 in the final regular season game and earned a birth in the playoffs, where they met Loyola High School. Rallying together, the Gryphons were victorious. Their next hurdle was HS Billings in the quarterfinals, where they were defeated 6-3, putting an end to a memorable season. There are a few retiring bantam Gryphons. One, Jaryd Zummer is both a remarkable goaltender and a true leader. The team next year will be led by a few rising stars: Alex Kaluza, Casey Auerbach, and Justin Moretti Montpetit. Most importantly, the Bantam team wishes to thank their coaches, without whom this incredible season would never have been possible.

The 2000-2001 basketball season started with high aspirations. With a promising line of players coming up from the highly successful midget basketball team, players looked to continue where they left off last year. The team was unable to prepare for the season opener, as the core of its players was bruised up from their championship-winning football season. In spite of injuries to key forwards Roberto Brunetti and Ray Kaedbey, the team battled on without a large part of their team. Yet, when all players finally returned to full strength, the chemistry of the senior team gradually meshed together near the end of the season, with victories over Bialak, archrivals LCC, and the Bishops. The team was led by a talented lineup and supporting cast. At the forward position, Roberto Brunetti, Chris Nacos, and Rayan Kaedbey took care of the dirty work inside. All-star guard Chris Merritt was the primary scorer, complimented by the flashy playmaking of Mitchell Sweibel and point guard Jon-Ian Lui. Even though this season did not turn out in our favor, the fun was always there. Thanks to Coach Alfie Paole for a memorable season, including trips to Lennoxville and Oakville, Ontario.

Senior Gryphons

The Selwyn Gryphon Wrestling Team experienced their finest season in some years with a second place finish at the GMAA Wrestling Championships held on February 20, at Kahnawake Survival School. Going into the finals in fifth place after the regular season dual meet schedule, the Gryphons passed the other schools easily, with 5 wrestlers in the finals. After missing last year, the Gryphons were able to bring home one gold medal, from Andrew Wong in the 175 lb. weight class. Finishing second were Eric Gnaedinger at 86, Najib Sallman at 112, Tom Hatzithomas at 145 and Nicolas Zaharia at 163. Alex Hrycyk finished with a bronze medal at 145 lbs., while Ben Albright (5th), Eric Aberman (6th), Chris Wong (6th), Nicholas Shadeed (6th), Sean Duffy (6th) and Dylan Jones (6th) all contributed team points.

The Loyola Sports Tournament, and the Omnium de Quebec provided excellent competition and a number of medals this year, as well as a greater number of participants than in the past. Selwyn House had a record number of GMAA All-Stars this year, with Najib Sallman, Nicolas Zaharia and Andrew Wong all winning their matches.

Another outstanding achievement was the team's fourth place finish at the Provincial Championships in the Juvenile Division on Sunday, February 20, held in St-Césaire, Quebec, about 50 minutes east of Montreal. Andrew Wong and Alex Hrycyk led the Gryphons with gold medals, while Najib Sallman and Nicolas Zaharia finished fourth. This was Andrew Wong's third consecutive Provincial Gold Medal.

There were a number of outstanding individual performances, including Keith Simmons win by pin over Kahnawake, Dylan Jones' dramatic improvement, and two exciting come-from-behind wins by Alex Hrycyk over his opponent from St. Cesaire.

The Gryphons will be losing a large group of athletes to graduation next year, including Andrew Wong, Alex Hrycyk, Tom Hatzithomas, Nicolas Zaharia, Eric Aberman, Keith Simmons, Robert Kwee. Next year the Gryphons will be counting on Najib Sallman, Max Necht, Dylan Jones, Jeff Chui and Chris Potter for leadership. This year's crop of rookies was outstanding and people such as Eric Gnaedinger, Ben Albright, Charles Ayas and Nicholas Shadeed will be counted on to also put in solid performances.

Best of luck to Andrew Wong, Alex Hrycyk and Najib Sallman in their attempts to make the Quebec Provincial Team for the 2001 Canada Games.

Curling

This year, three more schools competed in GMAA Curling, making competition much more interesting than last year, in which only four schools competed. James McKinney (skip), Sherwin Kong (third), Lindsay MacLea (second), and Francesco Di Muro (lead) formed the SHS 1 team and Keith Marti (skip), Andrew Hodhod (third), Alex Gatien (second), and Saro Setrakian (lead) formed the SHS 2 team. After eighteen games, Selwyn House School placed second in their division, two points behind Bialik High School, which advanced to the final against Hudson High School. However, at the Selwyn House Bonspiel, SHS 1 skipped by Keith Martin, and SHS 3, skipped by Jamie Rudolph-Zbarsky, captured first and second places respectively. SHS 1, skipped by James McKinney, who could not attend the final two games, finished fourth overall. Lower Canada College and Centennial High School were the other teams competing at the Selwyn House Bonspiel. Next year looks promising, as several younger curlers show potential and interest in playing competitively. As well, more teams are expected to compete in GMAA Curling next year. Bill Badger, coach of the team, will not be returning next year. Our heart-felt thanks for his contributions to the curling team over the many years.

The winter of 2001 has been one of the best seasons in the last couple of years. This year, the team actually stopped skiing before all the snow had melted! There was more skiing done in the first two weeks than the last two years. This extra practice contributed to the team's success.

Each class, the cross-country skiing team ran up to Mt. Royal with their skis to begin training. There, they skied on the Mountain for several hours in order to prepare for the grueling skiing competitions. This difficult practice is what ultimately contributed to the team's success.

This year, they won GMAA banners in both Bantam (gold) Juvenile (gold) and Midget (silver) categories. GMAA individual medals were won by Chris Bryson (Juvenile gold), Daniel Maldoff (Juvenile Bronze) and Valter Pinchiaroli (Bantam Bronze). Congratulations on a great season.

This year, Selwyn's senior rugby team had high expectations and hopes for success in the playoffs. After easily beating LCC in the first game, the Gryphons ran up against the biggest competition in the league, Loyola. After gaining the lead of 15 to 12 late in the fourth quarter, the opponents scored within the last seconds, stealing the game, and virtually ending the Gryphons' season. Despite this disappointment, the Gryphons kept playing. 'MVP' Nick Zaharia played exceptionally well throughout the season, stealing balls in the scrum and making incredible runs. Other veterans, Mark Schwartz, Roberto Brunetti, Tommy Hatzithomas, and Tim Howick also stepped up their game.

Honourable mention to Jeremy "coach's award" Whitworth for his big tackle against Ormstown. Many thanks to the five midgets who helped out the team and who will be returning for another season next year, and to the coaches Mr. Govan and Mr. Ivery for their insightful coaching.

The Midget Rugby team was put at a disadvantage when a handful of key players were taken to the senior team. However, the hopes and spirits of the team members were not doused, as Coach Maurovich and Coach Shaw stressed the importance of determination, effort, and most importantly teamwork. The players rose to the occasion and, late in the season, proved to be quite a team winning the 7's Tournament at LCC and coming to a heart wrenching one to zero loss to the second place team, Laval Catholic, in the final regular season game. The senior team has much to look forward to as veterans Chris Chackal, Chris Potter, Ed Cho and Bobby Chon move up. Returning stars, Tom Spencer, Matthew Perris, and Dimitri Manousos look to take leadership of the team next year. A thank you is awarded to both coaches for their commitment to the group effort.

Almost every day at 3:00 p.m., the crew loaded a bus and headed for Montreal's Olympic Basin, a venue of the 1976 Olympics. During April, the team trained inside the Basin's facilities, in anticipation of its opening in May. Rowers practiced their technique and synchronicity in the "Tank," a room with an eight-man boat fixed to the floor of a pool, and they trained on the rowing machines – or ergometers – to increase endurance and strength. Mr. Brad Moffat guided the team with the much appreciated help of Adrienne and Catherine, both student coaches. Before going out on the water, the team had to take an Erg Test, where each must row 2000 meters. In May, the team set out on the water, each starting on singles. As the month progressed, rowers formed teams to man a quad (two oars each) and a four (one oar each). The team also experimented with an eight-man scull. Towards the end of the school's rowing season, Mr. Moffat held an intramural 1000-meter event, where Nicholas Cronin placed first, Michael Sterle-Contala second, and Jacob Harris third. Although the lack of other teams to compete against allowed for few opportunities to test their skills, the rowing team still enjoyed the spring season training at the Olympic Basin.

This was a successful year for Selwyn House tennis as we won our own singles tournament, the GMAA Bantam championship and silver team medals in both Midget and Juvenile categories at the GMAA tournament. On May 2nd, we again played host at our own invitational singles tournament. The field included teams from Ashbury, BCS, LCC, Northwood (Lake Placid). Richard Kwee, Stephane Levy, Adrian Gaty, and Rob Kwee represented Selwyn House, winning 17 out of 20 matches in the round-robin format. Play was of a high standard and physically demanding as each student played five one set matches. This is the second time in just over ten years that we have won our own tournament.

At Rockland Sport on Friday, May 18, our bantam team emerged from the matches in the top spot at the end of the day. We had little idea what to expect in the way of competition and, so, were especially pleased with the result. The old adage of taking one match at a time served (pun intended) us well. Will Molson and Sean Brophy were entered in singles. Sean placed fourth in that and our two doubles teams squared off in the final, with Andrew April and Jonathan Lutter-Hoppenheim edging Michael Bowey and William Martin-Chin. The championship is decided on the basis of total matches won in both round-robin play and in the elimination rounds. Both singles players and doubles teams advanced to the elimination rounds in Midget play. Richard Kwee won the singles title and Nick Tory and Keith Martin placed fourth in doubles. Andrew Hodhod, Michael Grover and Matthew Firestone also contributed to give us the Team Silver.

Finally, in Juvenile play, Stephane Levy and Adrian Gaty played several close, tough matches each to put us in the running for team honours. Both acquitted themselves very well on the court with superior play and sportsmanlike attitude. Stephane won the Bronze in a very competitive field of players. In doubles, Andrew Cleland and Chris Nacos advanced to the elimination round as did Thomas Constantinescu and Rob Kwee. Thomas and Rob won the Silver, helping us to gain enough points for the Team Silver. Coaches Kathi Biggs and Andy Humsden are very pleased with these results and they are equally proud of the deportment of our players in competition, and during the tryouts at Nun's Island.

Baseball Team

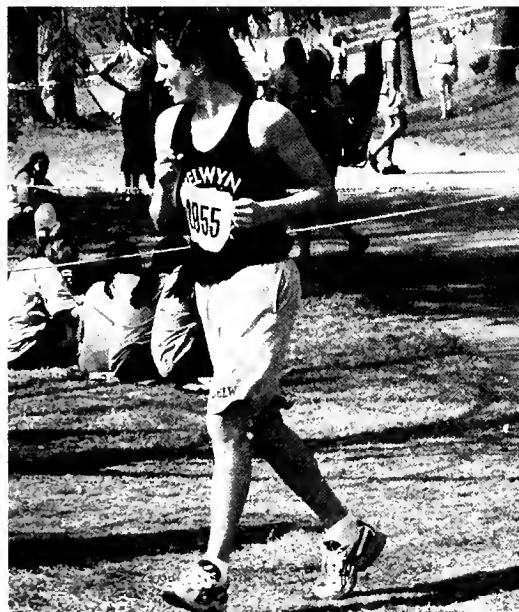

Back Row: Coach T. Downey, B. Shell-Schnitzer, M. Hendy, C. Fanaberia, M. Sweibel, H. Bernstein, J. Galardi, S. Bernstein, Coach S. Mitchell.
Front Row: C. Auerbach, E. Gnaedinger, T. Shannon, M. Lazar, M. Bawey, J.A. Bastien.
Absent: S. Avrith, J. Feil, B. Haciane, B. Marcus..

Track Team

Track Team (alphabetical order): A. Browman, C. Churchill-Smith, G. Dyck, J. Ivaskiv, S. Kong, L. MacLean, E. Martz, C. Merritt, J. Merritt, C. Newlove, N. Niro, T.-J. Quan, T. Rigby, D. Rinaldi, G. Robbins, A. Roy, N. Sallman, J. Tan, N. Tsoukas, D. Wilner, J. Wolfe.

Selwyn House boys put in a good performance at this year's GMAA Halo Race on Mount Royal on May 2, but, due to a technicality, were edged out of medals that were within their grasp. At the Juvenile level, Christopher Merritt and Chris Churchill-Smith would have each brought home medals had it not been for this unfortunate turn of events.

Josh Wolfe impressed everyone by completing the four-kilometre course in twelve minutes, a full two minutes ahead of the next runner. Josh has had a great year, recently posting an 800-metre time that unofficially breaks the all-time GMAA record at the Midget level. In the Midget event, Lindsay MacLean came in 6th, Tom Rigby 8th, Geoff Dyck 10th and Davide Rinaldi 16th. In the Bantam race, Jon Merritt was nosed out of first place, with Alex Browman 6th and Justin Ivaskiv 7th.

Intramural

Golf Instruction

Golf was one of the only sports where the students demonstrated a sense of pride to be known as "the golfers." Every day as the bus left the students would chant "Golf" as loud as they could, all together, as the other sports options grouped outside the Macaulay building getting ready to leave for their destinations.

We would reach the Nuns Island Golf range at 3:30, and during the first few days each individual would concentrate solely on hitting the golf balls as far as they could. For the last few classes, professionals were there to help us improve our game. By the end each golfer had one thing in mind: hit the ball far, but as close to their target as possible. Needless to say, there were some beginners and some "professionals" among the group. Golf proved to be quite the phys-ed option, with 15 dedicated golfers, and an incredibly talented instructor, M. Shannon.

Ball Hockey

Depuis déjà plusieurs années, chaque printemps, nous revient à Selwyn, comme une tradition, la fièvre du hockey. Coïncidant avec les éliminatoires de la Ligue Nationale de hockey, les jeunes s'en donnent à cœur joie et en redemandent.

Cette année, l'équipe Azzuri s'est distinguée en finissant au premier rang. Cette équipe a vu évoluer le meilleur défenseur de la ligue Patrick Bruce ainsi que l'un des meilleurs joueurs avant Stefano Salvo. Malheureusement pour l'équipe, des blessures ont compromis leur chance d'accéder à la finale et ils ont dû battre en retraite devant Les Patriotes.

Une autre équipe, qui s'est particulièrement distinguée cette saison, fut Les Jets. Particulièrement puissant dans les buts avec le gardien de but d'expérience Elias Mantis, titulaire de trois Coupe Glaude à son actif, il a remporté cette année le prix du meilleur gardien de but de la ligue tout en menant, encore une fois, son équipe à l'obtention de la Coupe Glaude, et ce, malgré la performance, non moins éclatante, du gardien de but vedette des Patriotes, John-Alexandre Bastien. L'attaque nourrie des Jets comptant les meilleurs joueurs avant de la Ligue, Eric Sherman et Adam Sternthal, ont finalement eu raison des Rosenhek, St-Germain et Zammit de l'équipe des Patriotes.

Rappelons en terminant que le traditionnel match des étoiles opposant élèves et professeurs a été, pour la première fois depuis trois ans, remporté par les élèves au compte de 7 à 6. Bravo! Tous les participants de «ball hockey» et rendez-vous l'an prochain, peut-être pour la dernière fois? à une autre passionnante saison de «ball hockey» à Selwyn.

Selwyn House, an independent boys' school provides students with an education of exceptional depth and scope. The School fosters academic excellence through an enriched curriculum, the development of critical and creative thinking, and the ability to communicate ideas well. We strive to instill in our students an intellectual curiosity and a lifelong commitment to learning. Dedicated, energetic staff teach our courses, coach our teams, supervise our activities, and communicate openly and regularly with parents. Our programmes challenge boys mentally and physically, while stressing a respect for honesty and fair play, and a tolerance of the ideas of others. Selwyn House supports its students and staff, and rewards their efforts as well as their achievements. Our community is one in which students can build confidence and self-discipline, appreciate their responsibilities to others and themselves, and find joy in learning. Our goals are that students will acquire positive attitudes to scholarship and recreation, learn clarity of thinking and self-expression, and guide themselves with a high degree of personal integrity... and on to the funny stuff!
